Privacy Information

What information can be disclosed?

The Privacy Act allows Victoria Teachers Mutual Bank and other applicable persons to disclose personal information about you when related to the primary purpose for which it was collected.

Your sensitive information (e.g. membership of a professional or trade association) may also be disclosed where relevant to the purposes for collecting it.

Why do we obtain information?

Before, during or after the provision of our products and services to you, we may obtain your personal information for the purpose of providing products and services to you and managing our business.

If you do not provide us with the personal information that we request, we may not be able to consider your application or provide other services.

Who can give or obtain information?

For the purpose of providing products and services to you and managing our business, we may give information to:

- External service providers to us, such as organisations which we use to verify your identity, payment systems operators, mailing houses and research consultants;
- Insurers and re-insurers, where insurance is provided in connection with our services to you;
- Superannuation funds, where superannuation services are provided to you;
- Debt collecting agencies or credit reporting bodies, if you have not repaid a loan or debt as required;
- Our professional advisors, such as accountants, lawyers and auditors;
- Your representative, for example, lawyer, mortgage broker, financial advisor or attorney, as authorised by you;
- Government and regulatory authorities, if required or authorised by law; or
- Obtain personal information about you from your employer and any referees that you may provide.

Overseas disclosures

We may disclose your personal information overseas. The countries where we are likely to disclose your personal information include the United States of America and countries within Europe. However, if we do disclose this information outside Australia, we will do so on the basis that the information will be used only for the purposes set out in this section.

Personal information about third parties

You represent that, if at any time you supply us with personal information about another person (for example a referee), you are authorised to do so; and you agree to inform that person who we are, how to contact us, and how to obtain our Privacy Policy, and that we will use and disclose their personal information for the purposes set out in this Notice and that they can gain access to that information by contacting us.

Security, privacy policy, and marketing preferences

Security

We take all reasonable steps to ensure that all your personal information held by us (on our website or otherwise), is protected from misuse, interference and loss, and from unauthorised access, disclosure or modification.

Privacy Policy

Our Privacy Policy located on our website at victeach.com.au provides additional information about how we handle your personal information. It sets out how you can ask for access to personal information we hold about you and seek correction of that information. It also explains how you can complain about a breach of the Privacy Act or the Credit Reporting Privacy Code and how we will deal with your complaint. We will give you a copy of our Privacy Policy on request.

Marketing preferences

We may use information about you to inform you about products and services (unless you ask us not to). We may do so even if you are on the Do Not Call Register.

(c) Copyright exists in this document.

Declaration
